

Friendship

“This is my commandment that you love one another as I have loved you. No-one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you.”

John 15:12 - 14

Bible Story: The Parable of the Good Samaritan
Luke 10:25 - 37

The Samaritan was the friend to the man who had fallen into the hands of others. He bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them, then he put him on his own animal and brought him to an inn where he cared for him.

This reminds us that friendship is a gift that should be shared with and offered to others freely and without reservation.
