

At Charing Church of England Primary School, we have high expectations of all members of our school community.

Governors at Charing :

Are passionate about supporting every child to achieve beyond his or her expectations

Are committed to providing the best school experiences possible for all children

Have a sense of humour and enjoy being with children

Are team players who work effectively with others to achieve a common goal

Show initiative and are pro-active

Are reflective and self-evaluative

Are role models for the children and other adults at the school

Support and challenge the staff to have high expectations of themselves and the children

Care - about the children, the adults and the school

Act as ambassadors of the school in the wider community

Demonstrate our Christian values and follow the teachings of Jesus

Demonstrate British values

“there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other”

1 Corinthians 12:25
