

At Charing Church of England Primary School, we have high expectations of all members of our school community.

Parents of Charing children:

Are positive about learning and the school

Have high expectations of themselves and their children

Ask questions and are inquisitive about their child's learning

Support their child's learning in and out of school

Show respect for others - adults and children

Encourage independence in their child

Work with the school to help their child achieve beyond his/her expectations

Help their child to develop and demonstrate Christian values

Are supportive of the school

Are positive members of our school community

Support the Christian values of the school and the wider Christian community

Support the British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance for those of different faiths and beliefs

“there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other”

1 Corinthians 12:25
